U.S. AIR FORCE

FIRST SERGEANT ACADEMY CURRICULUM

FYI:

FSA academy recently added three hours to deployments block: Field Hygiene, Emergency Leave, and Joint/Reserve Component Issues

FSA academy now has 20 total hours on deployment issues

RECOMMENDATIONS

U.S. AIR FORCE

- 1. FSA currently has an Army First Sergeant brief the class, we recommend making it a Joint Panel by adding sister services from the Navy and Marines

Benefit: We are now living and working with our sister services; we need to understand their rules of engagement to insure equity across the board.

U.S. AIR FORCE

2. Add a recently deployed first sergeant for a discussion panel.

Benefit: New first sergeants get a current view on realistic TDY scenarios

3. Add FSA as addressee on trip reports

Benefit: FSA can add real situations to case studies

U.S. AIR FORCE

4. Split the deployment case studies into smaller groups (2/3 max)

Benefit: All students participate

5. Add an officer issues guided discussion block

Benefit: New first sergeants will understand how to with issues regarding officers

U.S. AIR FORCE

6. Add progressive case study to be issued at beginning of the class and to be completed throughout the course

Benefit: Students can fully understand the ups and downs of one troop through the various scenarios

7. Add AEF 1st Sgt Tasking Brief similar to TSgt Paulter from ACC
